Hendersonville – The Henderson County Sheriff's Office, working in conjunction with the North Carolina State Highway Patrol, conducted a license checkpoint on Saturday, July 28, 2007. This checkpoint was held at the intersection of Kanuga Road, State Street and Erkwood Drive. It began at 11:00pm and concluded at 2:00am. Personnel from both the Henderson County Sheriff's Office and the North Carolina State Highway Patrol participated in this checkpoint.

Citations were written during this checkpoint for the following infractions: 1 Driving While Impaired, 1 Provisional Licensee, 1 Seat Belt Violation, 5 Underage Consumption Violations, 1 Expired Inspection, 1 Possession of Schedule VI Controlled Substance, 1 Possession of Drug Paraphernalia, 6 for No Operators License and 2 warrants were served.

"I want to pass along my sincere thanks to the officers that participated in this checkpoint and worked to make it such a success" said Sheriff Rick Davis. "We continue to work within our department and with other agencies to ensure that the roads of Henderson County are as safe as possible."
